

The Queenslander Pictorial.

THE GOVERNOR'S RECEPTION TO RETURNED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

"God Save The King" (Major Wendieburg salutes)

Lady Cecil Adams shaking hands with a returned soldier.

Marching to the 'Cockhouse' Dinner!

The Elements

REGIMENTAL BAND OF THE QUEENSLAND INFANTRY.

25th Battalion

12th Battalion

2nd Light Horse

1st, 2nd and 3rd Brigades, Light Horse

Field Artillery, 25th and 26th Battalions and 1st Cavalry

DARILEY ISLAND TORRES STRAITS.

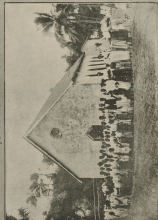

THEY ARE THE NEW FASHION.

The Old and the New Styles of Hairdressing.

The School House.

The Old Church.

The Style of House and Garden.

THE 14TH INFANTRY POSING FOR THE PHOTOGRAPH OUTLINE

—Tina Jans

MEMBERS OF THE RED CROSS SOCIETY, ALICE PETERSEN CHRISTENSEN, FOR THE HELFING HOSPITAL.
The kitchen at Peter's Bay is one of the most active of the branches of the Red Cross Society in Greenland. All Christmas season's business is being delivered into the hands of the various military hospitals across the peninsula.

—P. W. The press.

With the British Army in France.

Royal Australian Heavy Battery in Action

The Harmless Indispensable Mule Carrying Field Gun Ammunition Across Country in Bad Weather.

W. H. P. H. H. H.

CLERMONT.

Which has been partially destroyed by flood, with the loss of over 60 lives.

(Photographs taken by the U.S. Army and the U.S. Navy.)

VIEW OF CLERMONT-STREET, EAST OF THE BRIDGE IN WHICH HAVE BEEN TAKEN JEAN.

THE LAKE, FROM THE BRIDGE, WHICH CHANGES IS ABOVE THE CENTER.

ANOTHER VIEW OF CLERMONT-STREET, LOOKING FROM THE BRIDGE OVER THE LAKE.

THE CORNER OF THE TOWN IN THE BACKGROUND, SHOWING THE CORNER OF THE LAKE, BEARING THE CORNER OF THE LAKE, AND BEING.

CLERMONT-STREET DURING THE FLOOD OF FRIDAY, JAN. 6, 1911.

Infantry

CARRIED BY THE AIR.

A Belgian "airplane" (shown) is being used by the Free Press by a Belgian soldier. The picture shows two planes in the air, one of which is the "airplane" shown in the picture. The Belgian soldier shown in the picture is the "airplane" shown in the picture. The Belgian soldier shown in the picture is the "airplane" shown in the picture.

FRANCE—THE HARVEST OF WAR.

This woman, old and weak, represents the spirit of France and is the symbol of the spirit of the French people. She is the symbol of the French people.

COURT OF THE FORT.

A fine view of a horse racing track on the Fort. The picture shows a horse racing track with several horses and jockeys running.

—The horse racing track.

MRS. JOSEPHINE SMITH, who has been elected captain for January in the United States Chapter—see page 15.

MRS. MAYBELLE PHELPS, who has been appointed Clerk of the Western Town Chapter.

GREENGLASS (WHEELING GREENGLASS) ATTACHED TO AN INFANTRY BOMB-BAY COMPANY. They were trained with the Western Squadron at West Point, N.Y. From rear: Lawrence H. Adams; (standing) William P. E. Page (Lieutenant), August C. A. Walter (Captain), and W. Scott (Lieutenant). Middle row: Eugene L. M. Clarke (Lieutenant), R. N. Walker (Captain), R. A. Francis (Lieutenant), and C. E. Biddle (Lieutenant).

THE BRONZE PORTRAIT OF THE SON, R. J. PETERS. Presented to the Green Glass Art Society and now the gift of the special order of the order.

THE BOUL OF KNIGHT.

LEROY C. J. GREENBERG, Captain.

ROY A. J. MILLER, killed in action.

ROY A. J. MILLER, killed in action.

F. H. SMITH, killed in action.

F. H. SMITH, killed in action.

F. H. SMITH, killed in action.

CHRISTMAS OF THE GREENGLASS. Decoration of No. 1 (Green) and, Western Chapter, N.Y.

all other photo.

Red CL. Greenberg's Grand Christmas, as decorated for Christmas by the order.

—W. H. Collection photo.